

Blacktop Bootcamp is pleased to offer Corporate and Fleet Driving Programs geared towards your organization. Reduce your employee's crash rates through better training. Reducing crash rates can help save your company money:

- Reduced insurance premiums for health and auto
- Lower equipment repair costs and down time
- Reduce your liability exposure to employee related crashes
- Reduce lost employee time from off-the-job crashes
- Improve morale through a fun, shared experience

We offer hands on training as well as lecture services. Contact us for more information.
