

Ralph Cofer is a Senior Law Enforcement driving instructor and has taught pursuit driving for over 22 years. He also teaches high performance driving classes for police use of the Chevrolet Camaro and Dodge Charger; as well as classes for front and 4-wheel drive. Ralph also teaches Pursuit Management to all newly promoted supervisors.

Mr. Cofer has also been certified through Driver Training Associate, Inc. to teach the Driver Improvement Program for the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles. With 36 years of Law Enforcement experience and 22 years of instructing he is a valuable asset to the Blacktop Bootcamp team.

Specialized Driver Training

- Basic Driver Training, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (1989)

- Basic Training for Driver Improvement, Virginia Department of Education (1996)
- Driver Improvement Instructor Course, AAA (1996)
- Advanced Driver Training, North Carolina Highway Patrol (1998)
- Basic Front Wheel Drive Training, FBI Academy (2000)
- Basic Driver Training, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (2001)
- Pursuit Intervention Technique, Fairfax County Police Department (2005)